I. LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP

- A. Certified copies of the letters of guardianship may be purchased from the Register in Probate office.

II. DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE GUARDIAN OF PERSON

- A. See brochure – Guardian of the Person: Duties and Powers

III. ANNUAL REPORT

- A. Every year each guardian of the person of the ward must file an annual report to show the condition of the ward with both the Court and the County Human Services Department.
- B. Annual report forms are sent to the guardian by the Court at the end of each year.
- C. The purpose of the annual report is to provide information to the Court on the health, welfare, and condition of the ward.

IX. IF A GUARDIAN DOES NOT FILE THE REPORT

- A. The Court can remove the guardian.
- B. The Court can issue an Order to be served by the Sheriff on the guardian to show cause why the guardian should not immediately make and file the report.
- C. If the guardian fails to do so or respond, the Court may issue a warrant directed to the sheriff ordering that the guardian be brought before the court to show cause why the guardian should not be punished for contempt.

X. HOW IS A GUARDIANSHIP TERMINATED?

A. Guardianship of the person terminates:

1. When a minor ward becomes 18, unless minor is incompetent.
2. When a minor lawfully marries.
3. When the Court adjudicates a former incompetent to be competent.
4. When the ward changes residence from this state to another state and a guardian is appointed in the new state of residence.
5. When the ward dies.

B. Guardian's responsibilities upon death of ward.

1. Guardian of the person does not have any formal duties at termination except to notify the Court of the ward's death. The guardianship powers simply end.

C. Guardian may resign from position.

1. Guardian must continue in role until a successor is appointed.
2. Guardian is discharged from responsibility when the Court appoints a successor guardian.

PROTECTIVE PLACEMENTS

I. WHAT IS A PROTECTIVE PLACEMENT?

Court ordered placement made to provide for the care and custody of an individual.

II. WHAT IS NECESSARY FOR A PROTECTIVE PLACEMENT?

- A. The ward must have been determined by a Court to be legally incompetent and in need of a guardian.
- B. The ward must have a primary need for residential care and custody.
- C. The ward must be so totally incapable of providing for his or her own care or custody as to create a substantial risk of serious harm to him/herself or others. The condition must be result of: developmental disabilities, degenerative brain disorder, serious and persistent mental illness, or other like incapacities.

D. The ward has a disability that is permanent or likely to be permanent.

III. IF THE COURT ORDERS PLACEMENT, WHO MAKES THE DECISION AS TO WHERE THE WARD SHOULD BE PLACED?

- A. Under Chapter 55 of the Wisconsin Statutes, placement authority is given to the County Human Services Board.
- B. The Court, in determining placement, would designate a specific facility or a 'like' facility to receive the ward that is the least restrictive environment consistent with the needs of the ward.

IV. IS THE PROTECTIVE PLACEMENT EVER REVIEWED?

- A. Protective placements must be reviewed annually.
- B. Court appoints a guardian ad litem (GAL) for the ward to conduct an investigation and make a report to the Court advising whether a full hearing is necessary; and
 - 1. Whether the person still meets all the requirements for a protective placement; and
 - 2. Whether the ward is still in the least restrictive placement.

The guardian will receive a billing for payment of the guardian ad litem fees.

A summary hearing is held before the Court to determine continued placement.
